APPLICATION FOR THE 2026 WOMAN'S CLUB OF BRIELLE SCHOLARSHIP

DIRECTIONS:

Our scholarships are open to the following students (both male and female) attending the schools to which we send our application: senior high school students going on to higher education; senior high school vocational school students who wish to further their training; and adult women who wish to seek education to enter or re-enter the workplace. Applicants need not be residents of Brielle to be eligible.

1. The application package must be mailed and postmarked by April 1,2026. Please include:
   A. The completed application. Download it from our website (thewomansclubofbrielle.org), or ask your counselor for a copy.
   B. A copy of the application essay.
   C. An official school transcript/record with raised school seal
2. The student must plan to attend an accredited college, university, business, vocational technical school or trade program.
3. The applicant is required to complete all parts of the application to be considered for the scholarship.
4 Take the completed application and essay to your guidance counselor.
The counselor or representative will mail the signed application, essay, and official transcript to:

The Woman's Club of Brielle
Scholarship Committee
P.O. Box 502
Brielle, New Jersey 08730

Save this address for future communication.

The decision of the Woman's Club of Brielle will be based on the following:

Transcript/record, essay, extracurricular activities, community service, and financial need, if applicable. Consideration will be given equally to average and above average academic records.

Scholarships will be payable to the college, university, technical institute, or trade program to be attended by the recipient.
