Thank you letters and cards have been received and shared.

- Federation Secretary: Randi Quilici

Happy New Year to all! Everyone is invited to attend the Shore District Council meeting on Monday, January 24, 2022. The location is only a few miles away at the Woman's Club of Point Pleasant Clubhouse, 513 Saint Louis Avenue, Point Pleasant, just off Arnold Ave over the railroad tracks. The meeting is from 10:00 AM to noon, costs $3, and you will hear speakers discuss "What it takes to run Federation", "the 128th Annual State Convention at the Tropicana in Atlantic City", "SSP Shore Bunco fundraiser", and "Join the Arts Performing talent on Tuesday, March 22, 2022, even as an audience spectator". It's also nice to see other clubhouses and members throughout our Shore District. No sign up is necessary and it's worth attending the two-hour meeting. I hope you will join us.

- Health and Wellness: Lucy Sanzalone & Mary Ann McGevna

- We gave 33 presents to the children at Dottie's House for the holidays and also provided 18 little gift bags for the mothers filled with creams, body sprays, hats, and socks.
- For the church helping the Afghanistan refugees, we gave bags of goodies filled with new scarfs, hats and socks.
- We collected 64 coats to donate. In addition to the coats, many hats, scarfs, gloves and socks were also donated.

- Many bags of food were provided for the food pantry. Including 40 bags donated by the residents of Cedar Village.
- We continue to collect for the food pantry. Donations can be brought to the general meeting or dropped off at Lucy's home. Don't forget to call Lucy when dropping items off at her home.

Thank you to everyone for the generous donations and for helping to make the holidays a little happier for the less fortunate.
